NEWS FROM NAIL

Slight Spell, the debut LP from The Ravenna Colt, was released in 2010. Only 400 copies were made available, and each one comes hand-numbered with a free download. The Ravenna Colt is the solo project of Johnny Quaid, a founding member of My Morning Jacket who performed on the band's first three albums: The Tennessee Fire, At Dawn, and It Still Moves. Quaid now lives and writes in Boise, Idaho. My Morning Jacket's new album, Circuital, comes out May 31 on ATO Records.

DECEASED

SURREAL OVERDOSE

SELLING POINTS

- RIYL: Napalm Death, Sepultura, Kreator, Metal Church.
- 25+ year history on core influential metal labels such as Relapse, Nuclear Blast, and Hell's Headbangers.
- Fifteenth studio release; first full-length of all-new material since 2005.
- Huge cult audience!
- Extensive US & European tours for 2011.
- Serviced to metal press and radio.
- Street teams being organized via extensive fan club for social networking and grassroots campaigns.
- 400,000 hits on MySpace page.
- Ads with Thrash, Terrorizer, Lords of Metal, and Metal Crypt.

OVERVIEW

Virginian death/thrash metal veterans Deceased headed back into the studio this year to record Surreal Overdose, their first full-length of all-new material since 2005's The Weird Travel On. The long-running metal maestros have kept the faith since 1985, summoning a slew of cult releases and building up an immensely dedicated fan base that has followed the band merrily to hell and back.

Now, at the dawn of 2011, King Fowley and his band of 'bangers have returned. The band recorded the new CD, once again, in Assembly Line studios with engineer Kevin Gutierrez. Drummer/vocalist King Fowley produced the record, which promises to push the boundaries of the mind while embracing the band's signature old-school thrash delivery.

PRESS QUOTES

"Filled with riffs that pierce your skull." — Metal Crypt

"Are there even any remaining doubts regarding Deceased's legitimacy as one of the consistently brilliant heavy metal bands of our time?" — Diabolical Conquest

"A dream for all fans of Razor, Dark Angel, and Slayer ... On the one hand Deceased nuke us with highly melodic killer riffs, on the other hand there are also really heavy blasting attacks." — Metal Observer

- RIYL: Combichrist, Leæther Strip, KMFDM, Front Line Assembly, Funker Vogt.
- Solo project of Claus Larsen (Leæther Strip), one of the pioneers of the EBM scene.
- Contains an exclusive mix of the Klutæ classic "Desert Storm."
- First US release from Klutæ since 1996's Excel (Cleopatra Records).
- First US tour tentatively scheduled for Spring 2012.
- Full web campaign; featured artist on VampireFreaks.com in June.
- Full college radio campaign.
- Reviews/interviews in Outburn, Gothic Beauty, Regen, NXLive, and other online zines.

OVERVIEW

Claus Larsen launched this solo project in the early '90s under the name Klute, but changed its spelling to Klutæ in order to avoid confusion with an unrelated drum 'n' bass project. One of the true pioneers of the aggro-electro movement, Klutæ mixes walls of synthesized guitar noise with Larsen's chameleonic vocals and the trademarked EBM bass lines of his other project Leæther Strip. With the release of Electro Punks Unite, Larsen continues to push the envelope, taking the project to new heights.

OVERVIEW

Giorgio Angelini was the bass player in the Rosebuds and Bishop Allen. He also once fronted another band, called 1986, with Cully Symington. Eventually Cully left for Okkervil River, and Giorgio went back to graduate school. Now, he's got a new bag. Giorgio recorded this five-song EP in his home studio with the co-production help of Ivan Rosebud (The Rosebuds). THE LAST PLACE

SELLING POINTS

- RIYL: Superchunk, Arcade Fire, Death Cab For Cutie.
- Strong follow-up to critically praised debut, which earned placements in Shrek Forever After and Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist as well as TV's "The Bachelor" and "Greek."
- "The Long Goodbye" was featured in Vanessa Hudgens film Beastly (2011).
- West Coast tour in June/July 2011.
- Co-produced, engineered, and mixed by Adam Lasus (Yo La Tengo, Helium).
- Mastered by Greg Calbi (The National, MGMT).
- Press through Big Hassle PR.
- Radio through Pirate Promotion.

OVERVIEW

After the success of Army Navy's self-released debut album, the band entered 2010 with their strongest batch of songs to date. They were able to self-finance the recording of their second album, and once again called upon producer and engineer Adam Lasus (Clap Your Hands Say Yeah) to help bring the songs to life. The band worked for six months, pouring their hearts into an album with intricate arrangements, beautiful sounds, layered melodies, and tight harmonies.

In 2008, Army Navy self-released their debut album and quickly garnered admiration from fans and press alike. CMJ called it "some of the brightest pop released this year" and the first single, "My Thin Sides," was paired with a hilarious video featuring Paul Scheer of Human Giant that took the blogosphere by storm. The band found more success via indie-rock date flick Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist, which prominently featured two Army Navy songs alongside artists like Vampire Weekend, Modest Mouse, and The National. The group has taken its dynamic live show on the road supporting The Lemonheads, Arctic Monkeys, The Dodos, The Soft Pack, The Like, and Cut Copy; and played explosive shows at SXSW, CMJ, and the UK's Truck Festival. They were even asked to be musical guests on the short-lived Tonight Show with Conan O'Brien. Now, back from mastering with Greg Calbi, the boys are excited to get back out and play their new songs live in 2011!

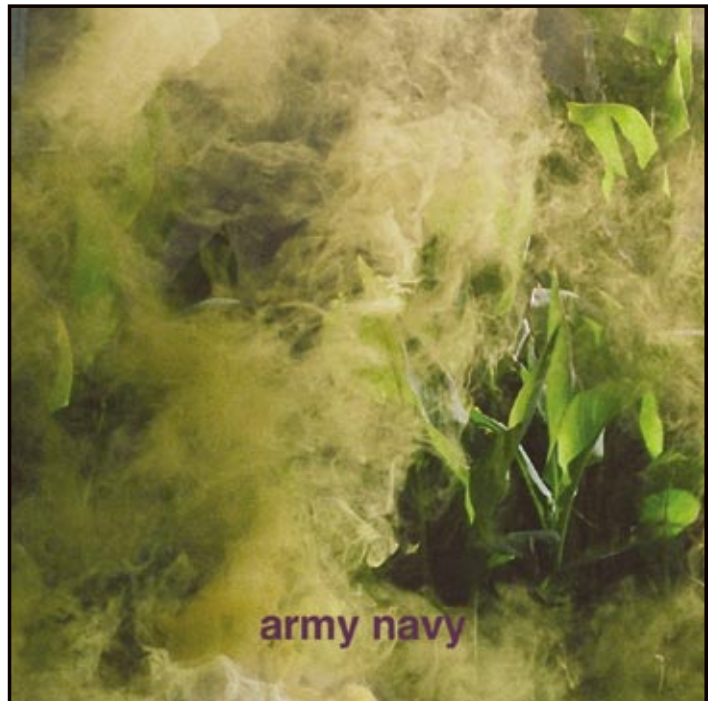

PRESS QUOTES

"Pure alchemy ... Army Navy is a blast." — Pitchfork (7.8)

"A splashy jangle of distorted guitars and winsomely defiant vocals." — SPIN

"Bounding jangle-pop guided by Kennedy's plaintive, searching vocals." — Rolling Stone

"A Posies-and Teenage Fanclub-style tsunami of melody and distortion that underscores the youthful essence of power-pop in all its bittersweet glory." — NPR

- RIYL: Laura Gibson, Y La Bamba, The Thermals, Dirty Projectors, Orange Juice.
- College radio promotion by Vitriol Promotions.
- Press promotion by Magic Marker.

OVERVIEW

Dirty Mittens' debut full-length, Heart of Town, has been almost two years in the making. Holed up in an abandoned Masonic temple with producer Jim Brunberg and a rotating cast of Portland's finest musicians (Laura Gibson, Matt Sheehy, Steve Berlin of Los Lobos, and Dave Jorgensen of Blind Pilot, to name a few), the band has lovingly crafted an album that is poppy and tuneful, yet layered and sonically serious. The band, led by charismatic fireball Chelsea Morrisey, has also crafted what is widely regarded as one of the best live shows in Portland, regularly headlining and filling 300–400 capacity rooms with dancing bodies and sweat, not to mention sharing stages, drinks, and hazy memories with The Thermals, Suckers, Dodos, Dirty Projectors, Surfer Blood, and many more. In late July, they'll be loading up their big blue van ("Babe") and giving the rest of the western states a chance to see what the fuss is about.

OVERVIEW

Not far from Venice, Italy they're mixing up an adrenaline-fused rock 'n' roll cocktail so potent that you'll shake for weeks after your first taste. The Brokendolls have spent the last year perfecting this cocktail on stages across Europe. Recently, they stepped offstage just long enough to record their second album at Sweden's legendary Restless Sound Studios. Here, The Dolls find a perfect balance between the local Swedish garage sound (Hellacopters, Sonic Negroes) and their high-energy rock 'n' roll roots (AC/DC, Nashville Pussy). This album is as dirty and raunchy as the nearby canals of Venice, yet still pure of rock 'n' roll heart.

SELLING POINTS

- The Brazilian answer to the Nuggets classics, never before released in the US.
- Appeals to world music, psych rock, and rock buyers; huge crossover potential.
- Expected reviews from Pitchfork and Accelerator.

OVERVIEW

This release is part of a historical restoration project of Brazil's biggest independent label from the 1950s through the 1970s: Rozenblit. The first chapter documents a psychedelic scene that developed in Pernambuco under the shadow of the military dictatorship, far from the music capitals of Rio & São Paulo. The music, featuring the likes of previously unknown artists like Flaviola and The Gentlemen for the first time, is a true inspiration. Watch for the super-heavy re-releases of all the key albums from this vibrant hedonistic music scene!

- Expected reviews from Pitchfork and Accelerator.

OVERVIEW

The summer of 2011 welcomes the self-titled debut album by Hollie Cook, released on Mr Bongo Recordings. Hollie's self-coined "tropical pop" sound stems from her passion for reggae singers Janet Kay and Phyllis Dillon combined with her love of classic '60s girl groups. Friend and collaborator Mike Pelanconi, better known as Prince Fatty, produced the album, which includes a cover of the Shangri-Las' "(Remember) Walkin' In The Sand," transformed from a dark, emotive song to one filled with hope. The talents of Omar, Dennis Bovell, George Decker (The Pioneers), Style Scott, and Horseman also feature across the album.

OVERVIEW

Any of the artists that form The Spanish Donkey (Jamie Saft, Joe Morris, Mike Pride) could create dictionaries of superlatives with praise their work has garnered. But as a cohesive unit, they surge forward into a new thesaurus, as a dream trampling through the woods on the edges of evening. Joe Morris' melodic improv guitar lines sketching out space where Jamie Saft's keyboards color in chromatic aberration nudged and prodded by Mike Pride's outside of time drumming. Three artists who have made careers of developing new sonic spaces, have formed a new place of exploration and imagination. It's the re-history of 21st century avant-jazz.

- Features both Tyshawn Sorey and Marcus Gilmore, two artists considered state-of-the-art on their instrument, playing together in a rare two-drummer setup.
- Full press mailing and contact to newspapers, general interest magazines, music critics, jazz and contemporary classical music magazines, and influential blogs.
- Full radio servicing to CMJ and JazzWeek panel jazz stations and NPR programming. Pi Recordings will launch a targeted online campaign through various relevant sites such as All About Jazz.

OVERVIEW

The Mancy of Sound finds Steve Coleman at his creative peak, incorporating a lifetime of research into African Diasporic culture and cycles found in nature & astronomy into his musical methods. The current edition of his longtime band is perhaps his strongest ever. Of particular note are Jonathan Finlayson, who has been with the group for the last eight years and is one of the most highly regarded young trumpeters in jazz; and Jen Shyu, whose rhythmically incisive and tonally exacting vocals Coleman employs as an equal part in the horn section. Completely defying the traditional role of jazz singing, Shyu's passionate vocals bring an emotional element to this complex and cutting-edge music. They are backed by an unusual two-drummer rhythm section featuring Tyshawn Sorey and Marcus Gilmore, considered by many to be the state-of-the-art in jazz.

PRESS QUOTES

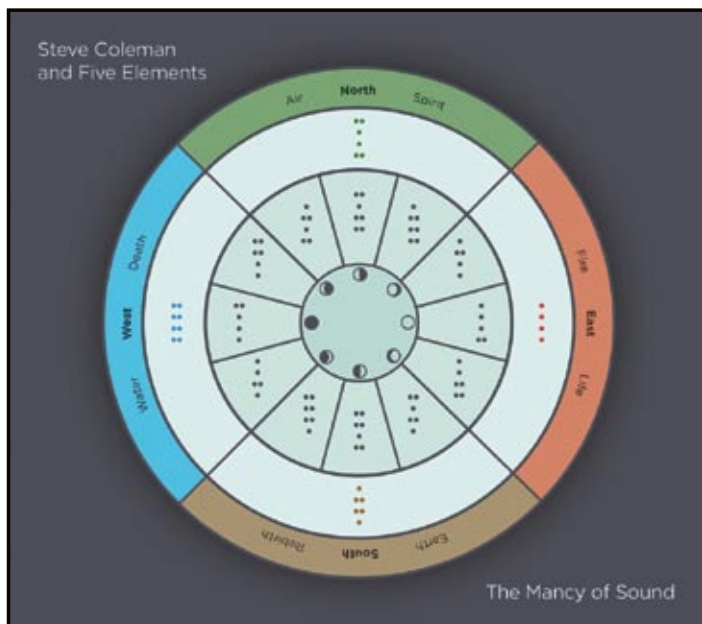

"As bewitching as anything I've ever heard ... gorgeous."
— Ben Ratliff, New York Times

"The most influential jazzman of his era."

"At once cerebral and visceral, challenging to the head while gripping to our sensual faculties." — JazzTimes

"Ferocious, perfectly poised music." — Boston Phoenix

"A notable reminder of the saxophonist's undeniable artistic originality and his unremitting desire to navigate an ocean of sound without the same safety raft as some of his peers." — Jazzwise

- Limited to 500 copies; first 100 on color vinyl.
- Two generations of brilliant electronic music.
- Promo mailing via Important Records.

OVERVIEW

Last summer Important released some highly praised records with Kouhei Matsunaga including a collaborative CD with Sean Booth (Autechre) and Mika Vainio (Pan Sonic), a split LP with Mika Vainio, and a full-length CD of his own solo work. The breadth and quality of Kouhei's work was apparent across these three releases, and his compositions for this split LP serve to create connections between his beat-based work and his more abstract soundscapes. Asmus Tietchen's contribution to contemporary electronic music is immense. The two pieces making up his side of the record have been sculpted from stochastic sequences of pure sine waves as well as guitar samples given to him by Dirk Serries (Fear Falls Burning), not for the purpose of collaboration but for processing purposes.

Welcome to a world where violence is a virtue and depravity is a way of life. This is the underside of Shinjuku and the home of Kakihara, a sadistic Yakuza killer. He relentlessly tears apart the underworld searching for the man who killed his boss. The mastermind behind the plot is Jijii, an ex-cop bent on turning the gangsters of Japan against one another. His trump card is a physically powerful lunatic who is constantly on the verge of snapping. This madman is Ichi the Killer, and between him and Kakihara, the streets will run red with blood.

- Brought to you by controversial cult filmmaker Takashi Miike, director of Audition and Visitor Q.

NTSC, Region 1; 1.33:1, Color; Japanese with English Sub/Dub (2.0/5.1); Not Rated, Run Time: 124 min.

“Add HANSEL & GRETEL to the list of instant classics. This freaky fable manages to outdo even the likes of PAN’S LABYRINTH and THE ORPHANAGE in its presentation of a bold and beautiful, but still downright terrifying, adult nightmare. See it and prepare to be amazed. It is one of the year’s best.” — FANGORIA

When a young man gets lost on a country road, he meets a mysterious girl and is led to her fairytale house in the middle of the forest. There, he is trapped with the girl and her siblings, who seemingly never age. Soon he discovers that the way out is written in a book—a book that tells his own story!
